Notable Project

Reverse Engineering of Legacy Pipe-Bending Die using Point-Cloud Data [Brightbirds Bedrijfsbureau] 2021
- Led the digital reconstruction of a 25-year-old pipe-bending die with no existing CAD model, preventing major production downtime and replacement costs
- Proposed and implemented LiDAR scanning (Leica BLK360) to capture broken die geometry, pioneering point-cloud-based reverse engineering at the facility
- Developed a hybrid workflow using Meshmixer, Fusion 360, and Autodesk Inventor to process and reconstruct high-density scan data into manufacturable 3D models.
- Overcame incomplete and damaged geometry through creative parametric modeling and multi-software data stitching.
- Delivered a validated digital blueprint that restored full production capability and established a reusable workflow for future legacy-part reconstructions.
- Saved the company several thousand euros in replacement and downtime costs
